
IMMIGRATION REFORM AND CONTROL ACT OF 1986

The Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 requires this Agency to ensure that staff are authorized for employment in the United States. Therefore, only individuals lawfully authorized for employment in the United States will be employed.

In connection with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, this Agency must collect certain information in INS Form I-9 and review certain documentation concerning the employment authorization of individuals hired after November 6, 1986. This information and documentation will be used only for compliance with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 and not for any unlawful purpose. If your employment authorization changes or terminates after the start date of your employment, you must inform the Human Resources Manager immediately.
