
MILITARY LEAVE

If you are a member of the National Guard or Reserves, and are directed to participate in periodic field training, you will receive unpaid military leave for a maximum period of 15 calendar days annually. Such leave shall not affect your normal vacation in any way.

Staff who are indefinitely deployed in active service via the draft or the act authorizing the President to order to active duty the National Guard and reserve components of the Navy, Army, Air Force or Marine Corps are entitled to military leave. Military leave is leave of absence without pay and terminates either 90 days after the staff member's discharge from the service, or one year after the staff member is released from hospitalization continuing after discharge. The staff member will be reinstated to his or her former position or to a position of similar seniority, status and pay if the Agency is informed of discharge no fewer than 60 days prior to the staff member's planned return.
